Recruitment and Retention Payment

Each year, the College will identify hard-to-fill full-time faculty and administrator positions that require a Recruitment and Retention Payment in addition to their normal compensation. For FY2024-2025, select full-time positions will receive a payment in August upon working the entire academic year. The payments will continue until the position is deemed no longer hard-to-fill or until the College no longer includes the payment in the annual payment schedule. The Chancellor has the authority to add eligible positions to the list mid-year if deemed necessary, and the list of eligible positions will be reviewed annually.
